FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1893.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1893.

Senator Harris has succeeded Sen. to Madison as President pro tem of the Senate.

Judge Ligon, of Tennessee, who will succeed Judge Jackson as the most great man in a series of Kentucky.

Platoon Kaiman has returned to England, leaving behind her a dense ignorance of the proper pronunciation of her name.

Mr. Hillyer, a Boston widow worth $5,000,000, has married Peter Sturtevant, her cousin, who is only one third her age.

Billy Sterns has again returned to Nashville and is making a red-hot race for Mayor. There are two other candidates.

Two new men in the list of Presidential appointees this week, but the President explained that they were "exceptional cases."

The Presidency of the Indiana State University at Bloomington has been tendered to Gen. Ben Harrison and he will probably accept.

For the third time the Baltimore case at a Maryland court is being argued by the Commonwealth against the city.

R. B. Hutton and Webb Smith, two young men of Mason County, Ky., left for Chicago Monday on foot, on a walking race for a purse of $100.

John Smith, who was reported dead by the Frankfort Courier, has turned up alive as President of a new bank just started at Fortville, Kentucky.

There will be 150,000 dead head men tickets to the World's Fair. Most of them will be sold to stockholders, city officials, Congressmen and newspaper men.

Commissioner Blount, accused by Mrs. Blount and a student of the State Department, released from San Francisco for home, on the 20th, on the U. S. court, Robert.

Mr. O. A. Hester, Sergeant of the Court of Appeals for a week or more, died this morning at Frankfort. Capt. Hill, the present tipster, will probably succeed him.

Ex-Governor Smith, the new minister to France, is one of the most popular and accomplished men in America. He will represent his country abroad with the highest honor.

The President has held down still another case for the Supreme Court. Applicants must not be related to him in any way, as he is unalterably opposed to nepotism in every form.

The row between Miss Symmes and Miss Carter, of the Louisville Columbian Club, is attracting more attention than the controversy over the penitentiary matter. Don't girls die?

The Bowling Green Times is already offering the announcement of a marriage between the two young ladies for the 20th of May, 1893. This is rather oversteering the early bird.

The Attorney General has filed the long list of suit against the Mason & Ford Co., owners of the penitentiary, for $20,000,000. This is the first suit covering all branches of the penitentiary system.

Carlyle W. Harris, the wife-murderer, whose trial at New York has been postponed, has been pronounced his sentence in a dramatic address of an hour and forty minutes.

Miss Ida Symmes has resigned the Presidency of the Louisville Columbian Club, in the interest of her career. The row in the club had gotten its affairs into a pretty bad way.

Four Amiant P. M. General Mail assumed charge of his office Monday and found a waiting line of 5,000 resignations of penitentiary men who did not want to be bound. These resignations will be filled before any petitions for removal are considered.

The Democratic caucus has nominated the following Senate officers: Wm. B. Cox, of New Orleans, Secretary; Richard J. Bright, Indiana, Sergeant at arms; Rev. W. H. House, Maryland, Chaplain.

Sparking of the truck the Senate is playing in its new attitude as that the House are also doing pretty well, thank you. Two of them are members of the Senate.

Congress and the first postmaster appointed by President Cleveland was a number of this highly seasoned mail.
